Wednesday night of last week, Mr. James
M. Morrison, one of the proprictors of the Ledger, while on his way from the office to his residence, was assaulted by two men, and rot bed of about eighty dollars in money and some valuable papers. Mr. Merrisou resides on the corner of Market and Upper Twelfth streets, and the assault was made a little after ten o'clock, in the market space, about a square west. One of the villains struck him with a slung shot, unking a deep and ghastly wound in his forehead, and also one on the bridge of the nose. Being knocked senseless, and dripping with blood, the scoundrels had an easy task of securing the desired booty. WILL CHIEF JUSTICE TANEY RESIGN?-A it is known that Judge Taney is now quite old and very feeble, it is often inquired whether he will not resign before the incoming of n new Administration in order hat the old Administration may have the appointment of a successor. In the ab-sence of all direct information, the follow-ing anecdote is submitted as throwing some light on the subject from which we should infer that he belongs to the race of officeholders who sellom die and never resign: "When the Library in the Capitol was out and enveloping the building, the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court appeared in his seat at the usual hour, looking quite tranquil and undisturbed. May it please our llonor,' said au officer of the Court will the Court sit to day?' The Chie Justice looked up, and coolly and significantly asked, 'ls the court room really ou fire?' Oh, no, no, not yet,' was the answer 'Then me'll not till it a,' added the Chief. And the Court did sir; and transacted busi-
